AT MEKOSHA

Legend has it that Dhanvantari or the God of Ayurveda received his wealth of knowledge from Lord Brahma himself.

Formed over generations, Ayurveda is a holistic science – it focuses on attaining complete well-being not only through a healthy body, but also through a healthy mind and soul.

Choose from some of the most popular healing packages. Our resident therapists and doctor shall be happy to customize the programme to your specific requirements. The team at Mekosha works very closely with you to ensure that you get the desired results from your retreat.

ABHYANGAM

A full body massage with warm medicated oil. Gentle to moderate pressure with hands and fingers are used for an effective massage. Massage is done in four to five standard positions. It improves blood circulation and tones up muscles relaxing mind and body, relieving body pain and inducing good sleep.

PODIKKIZHI

Herbal leaves are warmed in medicated oil and bundled into cotton cloth. These bundles are steamed and the fomentation is patted rhythmically all over the body to stimulate nerves and consequently provide relief from body pains, stiff joints, backaches and similar ailments.

SHIRODHARA

A therapy where medicated oils, milk or buttermilk are poured in a continuous stream on the forehead for a period of 45mins to one hour. Shirodhara alleviates fatigue, improves memory, vitality and sleeping patterns and is useful in the treatment of stress, depression, insomnia, migraine, ear-nose conditions, Administered typically for the long stay programme guests.

FIND THE HIDDEN YOU

Mekosha is a word derived from Sanskrit word Kosha (also Kosa; Sanskrit कोश, IAST: kośa), usually rendered “sheath”, represents the coverings of the Atman, or Self according to Vedantic philosophy.

Exploring the various nooks all over Mekosha's property is a chance to find your innermost Kosha & connect with a stronger, more content and more peaceful version of yourself.

Take a pause from daily stresses, live life in the slow lane & find the hidden you.
